

‘Love Saves Lives’ announced as the 2018 March for Life Theme

The March for Life, the world’s largest annual human rights demonstration, will be held on January 19, 2018, in Washington, D.C.

It was announced at a press conference Tuesday, that the 2018 theme will be, “Love Saves Lives.”

“Choosing life is not always easy, but it is the loving, empowering, and self-sacrificial option,” said Jeanne Mancini, President of the March for Life. “Love is universally attractive because it is directed towards others. Love is what we all strive for because deep-down we are all drawn to give of ourselves in this way. Love saves lives in countless ways,” she added.
